

SENTENCES BOUNDARIES QUIZ

Correct the following sentence boundary errors – if necessary.

1. Rudolph is studying paleontology I can't convince him that he'll find no dinosaur bones in the compost pile.
2. Lenora always says that she's memorized her grandmother's recipe for rhubarb soup, last time she made it with kohlrabi.
3. You must climb the trellis to the left of the main entrance. To get up onto the roof to repair the weathervane.
4. All semester Lorraine has been complaining about her underwater square-dancing class her partner is clearly not doing his homework.
5. I tried to throw my horseshoe accurately. It still ended up in the onion patch behind me.
6. The seal seems a little sluggish this morning, so we should probably give him his cup of coffee.
7. Henriette composes harp concertos late into the night, it's a good idea to have industrial strength earplugs if you want to sleep.
8. Tekla seems a likely choice. To run for president of the Bat Lovers' Club.
9. After a long day of truffle hunting the swine will be tired you'll want to read them a bed-time story.
10. Fernanda spent over hour. Searching for lost the bedwarmer.

SENTENCES BOUNDARIES QUIZ KEY
More than one answer may be correct.

Correct the following sentence boundary errors – if necessary.

1. Although Rudolph is studying paleontology, I can't convince him that he'll find no dinosaur bones in the compost pile.
2. Lenora always says that she's memorized her grandmother's recipe for rhubarb soup, but last time she made it with kohlrabi.
3. You must climb the trellis to the left of the main entrance in order to get up onto the roof to repair the weathervane.
4. All semester Lorraine has been complaining about her underwater square-dancing class because her partner is clearly not doing his homework.
5. I tried to throw my horseshoe accurately, yet it still ended up in the onion patch behind me.
6. The seal seems a little sluggish this morning, so we should probably give him his cup of coffee.
CORRECT
7. Because Henriette composes harp concertos late into the night, it's a good idea to have industrial strength earplugs if you want to sleep.
8. Tekla seems a likely choice to run for president of the Bat Lovers' Club.
9. After a long day of truffle hunting the swine will be tired, you'll want to read them a bed-time story.
10. Fernanda spent over hour searching for lost the bedwarmer.