

AGREEMENT QUIZ

Choose the proper verb or pronoun, whether singular or plural.

1. “This town ain’t big enough for both Sheriff Shane and those prairie dog rustlers,” growled Deputy Donnerwetter. “Either he or they (has / have) to go.”
2. The Algae Growers’ Association (expects / expect) the meeting to be an orderly and productive one.
3. Every worker at the Hollingsworth Hatband Factory, which has over 300 workers, (earns / earn) a good wage.
4. The entire egg-toss team (backs / back) the plan to build a new gym and chicken coop.
5. Neither the sailors nor Captain Calvin forgot to bring (his / their) sea-chest along on the voyage to the Sargasso Sea.
6. Neither Captain Calvin nor the sailors forgot to bring (his / their) sea-chest along on the voyage to the Sargasso Sea.
7. “Don’t worry about what kind of hors d’oeuvres to serve my family,” Rosalinda reassured Quentin. “Each of us (eats / eat) just about anything.”
8. “Will anyone lend me (his or her / their) pen?” asked Aunt Fortunata. “I need to sign the delivery form for my new hay baler.”
9. The water buffalo, in addition to the ibises, (enjoys / enjoy) splashing around in the pond out back.
10. Can you help me pick out a tie? None of these (seem / seems) to match my teal colored suit.

AGREEMENT QUIZ KEY

Choose the proper verb or pronoun, whether singular or plural.

1. “This town ain’t big enough for both Sheriff Shane and those prairie dog rustlers,” growled Deputy Donnerwetter. “Either he or they (has / have) to go.”
2. The Algae Growers’ Association (expects / expect) the meeting to be an orderly and productive one.
3. Every worker at the Hollingsworth Hatband Factory, which has over 300 workers, (earns / earn) a good wage.
4. The entire egg-toss team (backs / back) the plan to build a new gym and chicken coop.
5. Neither the sailors nor Captain Calvin forgot to bring (his / their) sea-chest along on the voyage to the Sargasso Sea.
6. Neither Captain Calvin nor the sailors forgot to bring (his / their) sea-chest along on the voyage to the Sargasso Sea.
7. “Don’t worry about what kind of hors d’oeuvres to serve my family,” Rosalinda reassured Quentin. “Each of us (eats / eat) just about anything.”
8. “Will anyone lend me (his or her / their) pen?” asked Aunt Fortunata. “I need to sign the delivery form for my new hay baler.”
9. The water buffalo, in addition to the ibises, (enjoys / enjoy) splashing around in the pond out back.
10. Can you help me pick out a tie? None of these (seem / seems) to match my teal colored suit.