

VERBS AND VERBALS QUIZ

Insert into the following sentence the correct form of the verb in brackets.

1. In preparation for the evening's kazoo concert, Uncle Tobias [sweep] the entire terrace.
2. Yesterday the exhausted ermine [lie] on the mantel.
3. From the tower we could see smoke [rise] from the east wing.
4. After she prepared the soup, Giuletta [lay] the lemon wedges carefully on the platter.
5. Leona's face [sink] when she realized that the box of sea urchins was not for her.
6. "All right," announced Terrance angrily, "I can see that someone has [bite] into my gourd. Which one of you was it?"
7. At last they discovered why the vacuum cleaner sounded as though it had been filled with angry cats: A [spring] coil was the culprit.
8. I wouldn't have [ring] the alarm bell unless the beetles had escaped!
9. Please [set] the pig in her favorite chair so that she might join the dinner conversation.
10. The [break] sconce was in three large pieces on the carpet.

VERBS AND VERBALS QUIZ KEY

Insert into the following sentence the correct form of the verb in brackets.

1. In preparation for the evening's kazoo concert, Uncle Tobias [sweep] swept the entire terrace.
2. Yesterday the exhausted ermine [lie] lay on the mantel.
3. From the tower we could see smoke [rise] rising from the east wing.
4. After she prepared the soup, Giulietta [lay] laid the lemon wedges carefully on the platter.
5. Leona's face [sink] sank when she realized that the box of sea urchins was not for her.
6. "All right," announced Terrance angrily, "I can see that someone has [bite] bitten into my gourd. Which one of you was it?"
7. At last they discovered why the vacuum cleaner sounded as though it had been filled with angry cats: A [spring] sprung coil was the culprit.
8. I wouldn't have [ring] rung the alarm bell unless the beetles had escaped!
9. Please [set] set the pig in her favorite chair so that she might join the dinner conversation.
10. The [break] broken sconce was in three large pieces on the carpet.